

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

MS. EXON.

INTRODUCTION.

THE Manuscript No. I. from which the entries relating to Devon and Cornwall are here printed, is a beautifully written square quarto volume, bound in parchment; and is in the possession of the Rev. W. W. Martyn, of Tonacombe, the present Rector of Lifton and the son-in-law of its former owner, Mr. Northmore Laurence of Launceston.

It contains two lists of arms arranged alphabetically: the first, a general Armory, occupying three hundred and eighty-one pages, and the second, an Armory of the West of England, occupying twenty-three pages. The former is in a handwriting somewhat earlier than the latter. The date when the general Armory was begun is evident from an entry immediately before the letter E to this effect: "Edward, Duke of Somerset, "E. of Hertford, Vicount Beachamp, L. Seymer, E. Marshall, and High Treasurer of "England, Governor to the Kinges Ma^{ties} Royall person during his minority, and protector "and defender of his realmes and dominions appertayning to the same."

This Catalogue of the Protector's titles points to the year 1548, which seems to have been the date when the writer began his MS.

It includes also the arms of ten English families, settled at Calais, and this fact tends to confirm the approximate date, for Calais was lost in 1558; and further, amongst the nobles entered are none created after 1550. Parre is given as "of Kendal," and not as Marquess of Northampton, but that creation was in 1547, and it is possible that the author may not have known of the advance and change in title. Viscount Montague, created 1554, is not given, nor is Dudley, created Earl of Leicester in 1564.

After the letter D, is the following list of Earls with their arms, viz.: Dorset, Darby, Derby (Henry Bolinbroke), Huntingdon, Cambridge, Gloucester, Kent (Thomas Holland), Ulster, Huntingdon (Clynton), Chester, Lyncoln, Winchester, Pembroke, Bigott (Earl Marshall), Kent, Courcye, Hereford, Northampton, Leicester (Fitz-Pernell), Leicester (De Montfort), and Walter Devereux, Earl of Rossmer and Maltellake (sic.)

The writer left gaps at the end of the names entered under each letter of the alphabet for the addition of others, and we find later entries throughout (e.g. Harvey, Clarencieux, 1561-1566, and Hawley, Clarencieux, 1551), but the bulk of the book belongs to the middle of the 16th Century.

The only indication in this MS. to its author, is a hand pointing to the name Brocke, with memento written over it. The arms assigned to him are—"Gules on a chiefe argent, a lion passant of the field." No other name is thus indicated. It has been suggested that the notorious Ralph Brooke, York herald (ob. 1625), might have been the compiler of this Armory, but the handwriting of this MS. is quite distinct from his, and is of an earlier date. Joseph Holland, who wrote the second part of Harl. MS. 5871, in the year 1579, has quoted frequently from this MS. of Mr. Martyn's, which he calls therein "Mr. C. B.'s book," (see Entries sub Atwell, Bamfield, Bedlow, etc.)

It is difficult to say whence the two authors of this MS. derived their information. For the General Armory certainly from pictured coats, as the writer of Part I. was not always able to describe the blazon, and so sketched what he could not describe. Azure is by him always called "blew." After giving the arms of Okington of Cambridgeshire—"Sa. a chev. arg. on chief or 3 crosses couped blew"—he adds, "It stands in Okington Church also, Sa. a chev. arg. on chief gules 3 crosses couped blew." An impossible blazon, but shewing that he had been in Cambridgeshire and used his eyes. The Western Armory (Part II.) is copied from some written account, for in it occur no trjckings, and "azure" is almost invariably found in place of "blew."

The General Armory in Book I. is preceded by the arms of 12 Emperors. After recording the coat of the Emperor of Babylon, the author adds "quere." Then follows a long list of Kings and Princes and Saints. Among them "Lucius, 1st Christian King of England," Judas Maccabæus, and Melchisedeck, appear.

The following arms are assigned to the Saints :—

- ST. EDWARD : B. a crosse batimey betw : 5: Martlets or.

Taking the Western Armory (Part II.) as our basis we have added to it the entries relating to Devon and Cornwall from the General Armory, and in order to distinguish the latter, have annexed to them the letters G.M.S., arranging the whole in alphabetical order for convenience of reference.

It seemed advisable and advantageous to compare this early MS. Armory with other heraldic MSS. relating to the West of England of about the same or later date, and also with the printed Visitations down to the year 1620 inclusive, as the variations in the arms usually assigned to certain families point to the considerable freedom with which the junior branches varied their heraldic tinctures and charges.

A brief note of the various documents and books with which this Armory has been collated is here given :—

HARL. MS. 1079. An heraldical book, in folio, written and tricked by Mr. John Withie, contains—inter alia—

- (1). Copy of the Visitation of Cornwall taken A.D. 1573, by Robert Cooke, Clarenceux.

- (2). Copy of the Visitation of Cornwall taken A.D. 1620, by Henry St. George, Richmond, and Sampson Lennard, Blue-Mantle.
- HARL. MS. 1080. An heraldical book, in folio, written and tricked by Mr. John Withie, contains—
- (1). The arms and pedigrees of families registered at the Visitation of Devon in A.D. 1565, by William Harvey, Clarenceux.
 - (2). A copy of the Visitation of Devon taken A.D. 1620 by Henry St. George, Richmond, and Sampson Lennard, Blue-Mantle.
- HARL. MS. 1091. An heraldical book, in folio, wherein are contained—
- (1). The arms of the gentry of Devon, reduced into an Alphabet by Jacob Chaloner.
 - (2). A copy of the Visitation of Devon taken by William Harvey, Clarenceux; begun at Excester the 21st of July, A.D. 1564, and done by Jacob Chaloner, with additions by Mr. John Saunders and others.
 - (3). Arms of the Devonshire gentry in blazon; by Mr. John Saunders.
- HARL. MS. 1538. An heraldical book, in folio, written and tricked by Mr. Richard Mundy, contains—
- (1). The arms of the gentry of Devon, tricked roughly.
 - (2). A large collection of descents, with arms in trick, taken from the Visitations of Devon in 1565, 1572, and 1620. Some brought down to 1637.
- HARL. MS. 1567. An heraldical book, in folio, by divers' hands, contains—
- (1). Ralph Brooke's copy of the Visitation of Devon taken by William Harvey, Clarenceux, in A.D. 1562 (without arms).
 - (2). The arms of the gentry of Devon, which seem to have been registered at the same Visitation, tricked altogether by Ralph Brooke.
- HARL. MS. 1956. A small volume in 12mo, contains an alphabet of the Arms of Cornish families, in blazon, some of them also tricked. On fo. 4 is the signature—Randle Holme.
- HARL. MS. 3288. An heraldical book, in folio, contains a copy of the Visitations of Devon and Cornwall, by Harvey, Clarenceux, taken 4 Elizabeth, A.D. 1562, and herein copied with later additions by Joseph Holland in the year 1612.
- HARL. MS. 4632. An heraldic collection by Sir Christopher Barker, Garter, (died 1549). On folio 47 are "Armes of the Gentelmen of Cornewall and Devonsheir and Somerset." The coats are tricked, and eight are blazoned as well as tricked. Eleven shields have been left blank, but have the names inscribed over them.
- HARL. MS. 5871. An heraldical book, in folio, contains—
- (1). A copy by Joseph Holland of the Visitation of Devonshire, made by William Harvie, alias Clarentieux, King of Armes, in Anno 1565. The pedigrees are in tabular form, and the coats are roughly tricked.
 - (2). A collection of Armes of the gentlemen of Devonshire, by Joseph Holland, dated 5 January, 1579. The arms are tricked, and names, places, and remarks respecting them accompany each shield. Joseph Holland has placed his signature on the top of folio 45, with the date "1579 12 El. R."
- Visitations I. "The Visitation of the County of Devon in the year 1564, with additions from the earlier Visitation of 1531," by F. T. Colby, D.D., Exeter, 1881. This Visitation is taken from Benolt's Visitation of 1531 (Bodleian Library), and Harl. MSS. 5185, 1091.
- II. "The Visitation of the County of Devon in the year 1620," by F. T. Colby, D.D., London, 1872, Harl. Soc. Pub., Vol. VI. This Visitation is taken from the original drafts in the British Museum, Harl MSS. 1163, 1164, the blazon of Arms being taken from Harl. MS. 1080.

- III. "The Visitation of the County of Cornwall in the year 1620," by J. L. Vivian and H. H. Drake, London, 1874, Harl. Soc. Pub., Vol. IX. From the original drafts in the British Museum, Harl. MSS. 1162, 1164.

From this list it will be seen that one MS. alone (Harl. 4632) is of an earlier date than the Martyn MS., namely, the heraldic collections of Sir Christopher Barker, who died in 1549. Among the contents of this interesting volume, filled with rough memoranda of Arms and notes in his own handwriting, his list of arms of Western Families is perhaps the most complete. In addition to the names and arms collated, there are several entries which do not appear in Mr. Martyn's MS. These we have arranged in alphabetical order and given in an appendix, as it is of importance that such names and arms appearing, as they do, under such good authority as Garter, and of about the same date, should not be omitted.

The other Armories here printed, to each of which a brief descriptive note is prefixed, have been selected from a mass of heraldic material in MS., relating to the West of England. They afford a fair example of the Armories of the sixteenth century connected with Devon and Cornwall. After 1600, the heraldic MSS. become too numerous to be given in full, and they will be found to be generally mere repetitions of earlier collections of arms with the additions of later grants. As these Alphabets of Arms are few in number, it has been deemed more expedient to print them in extenso, than to incorporate them with the preceding MS. into one armory.

Those persons, who may be interested in making further research into the MSS. Armories of the Western Counties, down to the year 1620, are referred to the following MSS. in the British Museum, for possibly further information than that here given, viz. :—

Harl. MSS. 752, 889, 1090, 1153, 1367, 1452, 2055, 2092.

Add. MSS. 16,940, 26,703, 26,705, 31,895.

Stowe MS. 727.

The Harl. MS. 2129, containing a "Scroule of Coates" collected in 1588, from Churches in Devon, etc., for Sir George Carew, afterwards Earl of Totnes, by Thomas Challoner, Ulster King of Arms (ob. 1598), and the second part of Harl. MS. 5871, with Joseph Holland's important notes, are not included in this volume and printed in full as originally intended, as we are informed that J. Brooking-Rowe, Esq., F.S.A., is about to publish them with his own scholarly comments.

BRITISH MUSEUM

COTTONIAN MS. FAUSTINA E, III., Part 1.,

AND HARLEIAN MS. 5827.

XVI. CENTURY.

- I. The Harl. MS. 5827, is lettered on back "Synopsis Chorographical of Devonshire—by John Hooker." An old title terms it—"A discourse of Devonsh. & Cornwall with Blazon of Armes . . . the Bishops of Exeter, the Revenews of the Denaries and parsonages and other gentlemen." This MS. is a rough transcript of the original work, which, as Prince states, "was never printed but goes up and down the country in MS. from hand to hand."

John Hooker, alias Vowell, was first chamberlain of Exeter, and M.P. for that city in 1561. He wrote several books, but herein states that this Synopsis is his last work and that he is "now lyvinge 1599."

Its contents have been briefly described in the Journal of the British Archæological Association, Vol. xviii. p. 138. The Armory begins on fo. 140 v. It is valuable on account of the numerous names of places contained in it annexed to the families whose arms are recorded.

- II. The Cotton. MS. is a fair copy of this Armory by another hand and of an earlier date. The Latin note prefixed to the alphabet on a separate folio is by a later hand, as is likewise the sub-title "Names of the Gentlemen, &c." This refers to the two MSS. contained in this volume. The Cornish arms collected by another writer have been already given.

In Harl. MS., 5840, a still later scribe has begun another copy of Hooker's Alphabet of Arms, but did not get further than the entry—Bothe.
